HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

WRIT PETITION No.11904 of 1995

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking a Mandamus to declare the action of the fourth respondent in selecting the fifth respondent in pursuance of the notification dated 10.05.1995 published in Andhra Bhoomi Telugu Daily Newspaper as illegal and arbitrary.

No stay was granted while admitting the writ petition. No counter-affidavit is filed. None appears for the petitioner nor for the respondents.

It appears the petitioner had been working as a part-time lecturer in Taluka Junior College, Tenali with effect from 01.12.1993. The second respondent-College had paid him at the rate of Rs.20/- per hour and he was allotted three classes per day. He belongs to Scheduled Caste community and therefore, he was offered aided post of Junior Lecturer in Taluka Junior College, Tenali. While that being so, on 10.05.1995, the Correspondent of the second respondent- College had published a notification in Andhra Bhoomi Telugu Daily Newspaper, inviting applications from the qualified persons to fill up the posts of Junior Lecturers i.e., one post of Junior Lecturer in Civics (aided) and one post of Junior Lecturer in Zoology (aided). In pursuance to the said notification, the fifth respondent seems to have applied for the post and was also selected as a Lecturer.

Now, the grievance of the petitioner is that he was appointed as a Junior Lecturer in Civics in the second respondent-College by its Correspondent on a consolidated pay of Rs.500/- per month and he has been working as such since 1993. Therefore, issuing the notification dated 10.05.1995 in Andhra Bhoomi Telugu Daily Newspaper, inviting the applications to fill up the post of Junior Lecturer in Civics is arbitrary and illegal.

Now, it is about 12 years since the date of publication of the said notification and filling up of the aided post of Junior Lecturer in Civics. Therefore, I am of the opinion that due to efflux of time the cause in the writ petition does not survive. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous. No order as to costs.
